THE WISCONSIN MBA

Join a supportive community

Wisconsin has a welcoming culture. Small class sizes encourage the kind of tight-knit group familiar to military veterans, who find Wisconsin offers a particularly friendly community of high-achieving, passionate, and open-minded peers that helps ease the civilian transition.

ROBUST RESOURCES

to support your MBA journey

MBA Veterans Organization

Student social and professional organization that assists with the transition from military to civilian life.

Veteran Services and Military Assistance Center

Campus-wide support center for community referrals to groups such as Madison Veterans Center, Veterans Law Center, tutoring services, and University Health Services.

Bunker Labs Madison

Madison-based, veteran-sponsored organization that empowers military veterans as leaders in innovation.

Career coaches

help create a seamless transition from military service to a successful business career.

“This program has helped me leverage the hands-on leadership lessons I learned in the U.S. Army, and is providing the knowledge and skills to competitively transition to the business world.”

— Andrew Leeman (MBA '18) Captain, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers
