Discover the smart financial choice
As a Yellow Ribbon school, UW–Madison partners with federal programs to supplement the Post-9/11 GI Bill® when needed, covering the out-of-state tuition rates for veterans. You get a top-ranked MBA education at exceptional value. Check your GI benefits to verify your standing.

FIND YOUR PATH TO A WISCONSIN MBA
Three programs to fit your lifestyle and goals.

The Wisconsin Full-Time MBA
for individuals who want to fast-track their careers.
• Ten career specializations in marketing, finance, operations, or strategic management
• $103,000 median starting salary
• #1 Best Full-Time MBA ROI
  —Poets&Quants, 2018

The Wisconsin Evening MBA
for professionals who want to advance their careers while continuing to work.
• 35% average salary increase
• 30 months, Monday and Thursday classes

The Wisconsin Executive MBA
for executives to enhance leadership skills while continuing to work.
• Strategic business curriculum
• 20 months, Friday and Saturday classes, every other week
THE WISCONSIN MBA

Join a supportive community
Wisconsin has a welcoming culture. Small class sizes encourage the kind of tightknit group familiar to military veterans, who find Wisconsin offers a particularly friendly community of high-achieving, passionate, and open-minded peers.

ROBUST RESOURCES
to support your MBA journey

MBA Veterans Club
Student social and professional organization that assists with the transition from military to civilian life.

Bunker Labs Madison
Madison-based, veteran-sponsored organization that empowers military veterans as leaders in innovation.

Veteran Services and Military Assistance Center
Campuswide support center for community referrals to groups such as Madison Veterans Center, Veterans Law Center, tutoring services, and University Health Services.

Career coaches
Helpful staff create a seamless transition from military service to a successful business career.

“This program has helped me leverage the hands-on leadership lessons I learned in the U.S. Army, and is providing the knowledge and skills to competitively transition to the business world.”

— Andrew Leeman (MBA ’18) Captain, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers

For more information, visit go.wisc.edu/mbavets